

The Clifton Lodge Trestleboard is now available in electronic format and can it be sent to you monthly via email.

No more waiting for the mail to arrive or looking for your misplaced Trestleboard. In addition the Lodge will be saving money on printing and postage costs.

If you would like to receive your Trestleboard and other information from the Clifton Lodge via email then you must let the Lodge Secretary, Peter Maris know this in writing. This can be done via an email (secretary203@gmail.com) or via mail. By Grand Lodge rules, we must be able to show that you have elected to receive your Trestleboard and other communications electronically.
